"Back 2 School" Savings Program

Have you noticed the school supply lists are getting longer and more expensive, the cost of clothes is rising, and each year the demand seems to be higher than the budget?

It's never too early to open a Back 2 School Club Account. With Direct Deposit, both students and parents can start saving money for next years school supplies, school clothes, and tuition. For those members with a current Back 2 School Club Account, 2007 payments will be deposited into your Saving Account July 1, 2007, just in time for the Back 2 School sales.

For more information on signing up, contact a Member Service Representative today.
